Vacancy Website and Content Designer (freelance, 8 hr/week)

Do you want to be part of a driven team that strives for a safe public space in the Netherlands? Then we are looking for you! Fairspace is looking for a website and content designer for 8 hours per week.

Fairspace was launched in 2017 out of a shared passion for intersectional and co-creative approaches to building inclusive public spaces. We focus on designing bold and inclusive strategies to end street and workplace harassment. Fairspace has built an extensive track record in comprehensive, education- and human-centred approaches to building more inclusive streets and workplaces with clients ranging from global companies to educational institutions to community organisations and international non-profits.

Fairspace launched its current website in 2019. Since then, our brand, messaging and services have evolved and we want our website to better reflect this evolution. We are looking for an experienced, creative and collaborative website and content designer who will offer creative direction and advise on how to improve/evolve our current website and guide us in bringing Fairspace's website to a bold, new level.

Responsibilities will consist of:
- Provide creative direction for Fairspace's website revamp
- Meetings with a small team of Fairspace team members and freelancers to discuss requirements and/or project progress
- Develop visual mockups showing design and layout of visuals and content
- Copy writing and content design , targeted at the different communities with whom we work
- Web Design and development using WordPress
- Create a new or updated version of Fairspace's website that is user-friendly, effective and appealing
- Digital retouching and image editing
- Work as part of a multidisciplinary team

Who are you?
The person we would like to welcome to our team is creative and innovative, with a passion for social impact and Fairspace's mission. You are responsible and can work independently. You enjoy being part of an international and intercultural team in an organization that is still developing and growing. We often explore new opportunities and offer space for your own ideas and initiatives.

What are we looking for?

- Demonstrated experience with creative direction
- Demonstrated experience with web design, UX and UI design, development, including WordPress, content design and copywriting
- A portfolio of previous websites you built for nonprofits or social enterprises
- You value diversity and inclusion. We would like to hear from you how you have dealt with this in the past or what ideas you have about it
- Affinity with themes such as equality, human rights and security
- Fluency in English, both verbal and written. Knowledge of the Dutch language is a plus.

We offer:

- An informal, dynamic work environment with a focus on healthy work practices
- A freelance contract for 8 hours a week for a 6-month period, with the possibility to extend.
- The possibility of working at our co-working space in Rotterdam. Remote working is also possible.
- Training and development opportunities
- A dynamic, international team and partner network
